The SSA also uses supply workers for relief cover as necessary

For comparison with previous Answers to Parliament, it should be noted that, following reorganisation of hours worked, two further social care workers are now employed, within the total number of hours previous provided. This allows the provision of a greater number of staff at peak times, while reducing staff when looked after children are at school or adults are at the Day Centre. These changes have taken place when vacancies have arisen, or by agreement with staff in post.
