Has Government developed a business plan regarding LNG ship to ship bunkering and does this detail the volumes of LNG expected to be transferred on an annual basis? If there is no business plan, how does government envisage the industry developing over the next ten years?

ANSWER

The Government, the Gibraltar Port Authority and Shell entered into an agreement in 2016 for the development of LNG bunkering business. This business supports and complements Gibraltar's conventional bunkering in the Mediterranean and Shell's supply of LNG as a fuel to the new power station in Gibraltar. The agreement sets out the terms on which the parties will lead long-term development efforts and investments for demand and customer development and the establishment of an LNG supply chain and bunker infrastructure. The agreement also provided for the creation of a regulatory framework. This has led to the LNG bunker code of practice which has already been put in place. The agreement allows Gibraltar to tap into Shell's expertise and establish itself in a prominent regional role in this new business segment.

What capability do local emergency services have in terms of dealing with a serious LNG incident at sea?

ANSWER

Local emergency services would provide assistance and support to any emergency at sea. However, the vessels carrying LNG as a cargo or fuel will have the right level of training, capability and equipment to deal with any potential incident onboard their vessel. The GPA would deploy contracted tugs with firefighting capabilities to supplement the vessel's own capability in any emergency.

NO. W9 OF 2019

THE HON L F LLAMAS

Can the Government provide a schedule with the payments made to each supplier under the GHA who has provided goods or services in excess of £10,000 in any financial year as at 31st March 2012; 31st March 2013; 31st March 2014; 31st March 2015; 31st March 2016; 31st March 2017; 31st March 2018 including a description for the invoices paid?

ANSWER

The attached schedule provides a list of suppliers that have provided the GHA with goods valued in excess of £10,000, by Financial Year since March 2012.

With regards to the descriptions per invoice, note, the data contains thousands of transaction lines of invoices. Identifying the detail in respect of each individual invoice is a considerably labour intensive task, which would place an inordinate amount of pressure on the GHA Finance team.
